Ryan Pollard
 - Rural Polk County area defined. All areas West of Highway 51 and includes ALL of Grand Ronde and Willamina. Excludes West Salem.
 - Needs - identify the gaps of medical care in regards to temporary sheltering.
 - Any gap should have some sort of goals/steps to understand them and why it's good for businesses, economy, individual level, and community.
 - Needs - to spell out that citizens in Polk County there's a one-stop shop for resources they client can get connected.
 - Ryan & Marianne will send the group dates/times to work on specific areas of the strategic plan and the feedback given.

- Additional Agenda item: Mailing Rural Polk County Household Brent DeMoe
 - Marty Wine suggested adding to the agenda. Kenna West and Marty Wine motion to move forward with the decision. Mailing all residential households in Rural Polk County excluding West Salem - about 19,000. Will be a postcard that refers people to the PATHS website. Will cost up to $15,000. Direct mailer to Rural Polk County residents
 - GAME PLAN: PATHS team reviews website and FCO drafts up what to send to folks - send to PATHS members once completed for feedback. Will then distribute the draft.
 - Commissioner Jermy Gordon asked “all in favor to move forward with the game plan of distribution of postcards.” PATHS voting members Marty Wine, Kenna West, and Mardette Cook said “I” in favor.
